

EGI Training Marketplace

Tuesday, 18 September 2012 16:10 (10 minutes)

Description of the work

.

Wider impact of this work

.

Printable Summary

The EGI Training Marketplace is a service to coordinate training across communities, projects and national teams. The new Training Marketplace enables trainers to advertise events, materials and resources, and researchers using EGI to locate, access and comment on training material, events and resources that meet their needs. If the specialist course, resource or material that you are looking for is not available in the marketplace, send us an email so we can develop it with our partners!

Primary author: DEVEREUX, Claire (STFC)

Presenter: DEVEREUX, Claire (STFC)

Session Classification: Software services for community building and support

Track Classification: Virtual Research Environments (Gergely Sipos: track leader)