Exhibition Guide
The Event
Building Next Generation e-Infrastructures through Communities
The EGI Community Forum aims at gathering tool developers, infrastructure providers, data providers and research communities to work together towards open science. It usually gathers more than 300 delegates and stakeholders from all over Europe and it’s the occasion for projects, collaboration groups and commercial enterprises to showcase and exhibit their work, the results of researches and their programs for the future.

The Venue
The EGI Community Forum will be held in Bari (Italy), from November 10th to 13th 2015 at Villa Romanazzi Carducci, Via Giuseppe Capruzzi, 326 Bari (mappa)

The Exhibition
The exhibition section will be located nearby a very high visibility area of the venue such as the coffee-break and lunch zones and will last from Tuesday 10th at 9:00 to Friday 13th at 18:00 according to the following schedule:

Booth Information
Exhibition booths of 6 square meter (3 x 2 m) for projects, academic institutions and other not-for-profit organizations cost € 550,00 for the full duration of the exhibition. It is not possible to hire a booth for just one day, or any other fraction of the exhibition. The price does not include individual passes. Attendants of the booth will have to register separately to attend the event. All booths should be constantly attended by a person in charge being the organizers not responsible for any damage, loss or other similar event that should occur during the exhibition. The booth fee includes:
- Aluminum frame 3 meter high (roof not included)
- Side and back white aluminum panels 2.50 meters high by 1 meter wide
- Fascia board 30 cm high
- Lettering on fascia board in regular letter and one color
- 2 spots lights of 120 watt
- Electricity box with 1 socket
- One table and two chairs.
- Basic cleaning

* Any other additional technical equipment not listed here (i.e.: laptop, desktop, monitor, projector, etc.), if needed, should be, preferably, ordered in the same order form and additionally charged. Payment for all extra equipment should be done together with the booth rental fee. Should the need for extra equipment arise in a later moment, please be aware that another form must be filled in and an additional payment should be issued.
Booking:
To rent a booth please fill in the attached form and send it by mail to: Salente@pd.infn.it by October 2nd, 2015. This is valid as expression of interest. Confirmation of booking will be sent only after the payment has been received. Booth assignment is made on the “first come first served basis”.

Payment Terms:
100% of the total amount must be paid upon signature of the contract and not later than October 9th. Receipt of payment will be issued and delivered upon request.
Should the exhibitor not observe the terms of the contract, the Organizers may cancel the reserved space and rent it to another exhibiting company without being obliged to reimbursement.
