

Supporting the Long Tails of Science with Open IRIS at Institut Curie

Wednesday, 6 April 2016 16:35 (30 minutes)

The Institut Curie is located in Paris and has over 3300 employees with, 83 research teams, 21 technology facilities, and spread across 3 locations. In order to manage research services Institut is implementing Open IRIS. Institut Curie participates in national and international infrastructures and it is envisioned that Open IRIS could also be beneficial to these endeavors.

Presenter: Dr RENAUD, Olivier (Institut Curie)

Session Classification: EGI Service Portfolio, SLAs and Marketplace